

“As a life insurance agent, I am charged with bringing financial security to my clients.”

—Gib S., Houston, Texas

“We advocate for families to plan ahead and make the right decisions for their future.”

—Bill O., Asheville, North Carolina

“We make a difference for our clients, and that’s all that really matters to me.”

—Tracy J., Scottsdale, Arizona

“I thoroughly enjoy being in the life insurance business and providing products that give financial security to people across the country.”

—Barry R., Williamsport, Pennsylvania

This week, more than 800 life insurance agents and financial advisors from all 50 states are on Capitol Hill educating lawmakers about the benefits our products provide to families and businesses every day. The life insurance industry is proud to help Americans grow and protect their financial and retirement security.