

75 MILLION AMERICAN FAMILIES RELY ON LIFE INSURANCE AND RETIREMENT ANNUITIES

This month, thousands of life insurance agents and advisors are on Capitol Hill talking with legislators about the role our industry plays in the lives of 75 million American families:

- Life insurers pay out $1.5 billion every day to American families and businesses.
- Almost 20% of Americans' long-term savings is in life insurance products.
- The life insurance industry generates 2.5 million American jobs.
