

Federal Lobbyist

We are currently seeking an assertive professional to join our team as Vice President, Financial Services. Responsibilities include 1) lobby Congress and the Administration on behalf of ACLI on issues before the Senate Banking and House Financial Services Committees; 2) represent federal relations department internally and externally on financial services, Dodd-Frank Act, insurance regulatory modernization, privacy, international insurance standards, insurance guaranty associations and other assigned issues; 3) coordinate lobbying activities and assist in policy development in concert with the Office of the General Counsel on above-mentioned issues; 4) prepare PAC recommendations; and 5) give technical, editorial and/or creative support in the development of testimony, policy position and lobbying documents to be used in connection with legislative priorities of the ACLI.

Bachelor's degree and a minimum of five to seven years on Capitol Hill or lobbying experience with relevant House and Senate Committees required. Thorough knowledge of banking and insurance laws, knowledge of Treasury agency rules, practices and procedures also required. Graduate degree preferred. Demonstrated skill in lobbying and government relations. Strong analytical and communication abilities. Considerable ability to transform issues and arguments into accurate written documents and presentations that are understandable and persuasive. Must be able to establish and maintain good working relationships.

E-mail or fax resume, references and salary requirements to:

American Council of Life Insurers
ATTN: HR – Financial Services
101 Constitution Avenue, NW, Suite 700 West
Washington, DC 20001
HR@acli.com
FAX: 866-953-4078