

Federal Lobbyist

We are currently seeking an assertive professional to join our team as Vice President, Taxation, Trade and International. Responsibilities include: 1) undertake all aspects of lobbying Congress and the Administration on behalf of the ACLI on issues involving taxation, trade and international primarily before the Senate Finance and House Ways and Means Committees; 2) represent the department internally and externally on these issues; 3) coordinate lobbying activities and assist in policy development in concert with the designated internal Policy team leads, Communications team, member company representatives, external partners and others as needed; 4) provide active input and thought leadership in the development of testimony, policy positions and associated lobbying documents; 5) help continue to establish ACLI as leader on issue areas with the Hill, Administration and internal and external stakeholders.

Bachelor's degree in related field required. Minimum of five to seven years on Capitol Hill or lobbying experience with relevant House and Senate Committees and understanding of taxation, trade and international issues; knowledge of Treasury agency rules, practices and procedures. Skill in lobbying and government relations. General subject matter knowledge. Strong analytical ability and strong communications skills. Considerable ability to transform issues and arguments into accurate written documents and presentations that are understandable and persuasive. Ability to establish and maintain good working relationships.

E-mail resume, references and salary requirements to:

American Council of Life Insurers
ATTN: HR – Federal Lobbyist
101 Constitution Avenue, NW, Suite 700 West
Washington, DC 20001
HR@acli.com