

Vice President, Retirement Security

We are currently seeking a dynamic professional to join our team to be our lead federal lobbyist on retirement security issues. Responsibilities include: 1) Undertake all aspects of lobbying Congress and the Administration on behalf of ACLI on all assigned Federal issues; 2) Represent department internally and externally on retirement security and other issues as directed by SVP, Federal Relations; 3) Coordinate lobbying activities in concert with appropriate policy staff on such issues; 4) Serve as department's primary representative internally and externally on retirement security issues; 5) Make recommendations to SVP, Federal Relations to attend PAC events in support of assigned issues and develop and recommend innovative political measures to advance ACLI agenda; 6) Develop an aggressive Congressional agenda and profile for ACLI on retirement security issues.

Ideal candidate will have a minimum of five to seven years of experience which could include Capitol Hill experience in senior roles and Capitol Hill lobbying experience with relevant House and Senate Committees and thorough knowledge of retirement security issues. A J. D. degree or advanced degree preferred. Must be skilled in lobbying and government relations. Extensive subject matter knowledge in marketing and taxation of retirement security products. Strong analytical and communication (oral and written) ability. Considerable ability to transform issues and arguments into accurate written documents and presentations that are understandable and persuasive. Ability to establish and maintain good working relationships internally and externally.

E-mail resume and references to HR@acli.com.

NOTE: ACLI is currently operating on a hybrid schedule working in the office Wednesdays and Thursdays and remotely Mondays, Tuesdays and Fridays.